M'NAMARA JUROR ADMITS RECEIVING $5,000 BRIBE

Money Had Been Paid and is Now in the Hands of the State Prosecutor Together With Signed Statement

M'NAMARAS TO BE SENTENCED TUESDAY MORNING

Bribery Scandal is Promised Within Ten Days That Will Far Eclipse the Original McNamara Case ---McManigal in Confession States Entire City of Los Angeles Was to be Blown Up.

Los Angeles, Dec. 4.—District Attorney Frederick today informed the Associated Press that Bert H. Franklin, a detective employed by the McNamara defense and arrested for attempting to bribe John H. Lockwood, a venireman, for $4000, had also actually paid to Bain, the first sworn juror in the case, $400, and promised to pay $3000 more at the conclusion of the trial if he would vote for acquittal or cause a disagreement.

A signed statement is declared to be in the hands of District Attorney J. D. Frederick, by Mrs. Robert Bain, wife of the first juror, charging that $5000 was paid to her by an agent of the McNamara defense to influence her husband to secure a disagreement for James B. McNamara, on trial for fatalities growing out of the blowing up the Los Angeles Times.

"Yes, it is true," Bain is quoted as saying, "and the money given to my wife has been given to the district attorney."

A statement by the agents in the transaction also is said to be in the possession of the court. The McNamaras are to be sentenced tomorrow, but the work of the prosecution here to apprehend other persons involved will go on.

Mrs. Bain told of Franklin first offering $500 cash and $3500 at the end of the trial to Mr. Bain if he would qualify and vote for an acquittal and his later changing the amount to be paid at the trial's end to $2500. That Franklin prevailed upon her to ask her husband to serve on the jury and sell his vote in advance was another portion of her statement. She said Bain would have refused Franklin had he approached him with the money, but that her pleas for him to accept in order to pay several notes due on their home won him over. The statement was made a few hours before the jury was discharged and when the Bains met they were both in tears. The district attorney consoled them, and, it is said, promised that they would not be arrested or involved beyond the giving of testimony in the court proceedings. The prosecution's information concerning the bribery of still another sworn juror, according to Mr. Frederick, is as well established as the Bain case.

"The defense simply could not win by fair means," said Mr. Frederick, "because they knew we had the evidence which would convict with any set of fair men, and when they tried unfair tactics we deadlocked them at every turn. That is why they surrendered."

Unless the big business men of this city, who insist that they arranged the compromise in the McNamara trial that resulted in the pleas of guilty to dynamiting, interfere because they do not desire this city to get any further unwelcome advertising, a bribery scandal is likely to develop here within the next ten days that may far eclipse the original McNamara case.

This was indicated today when Judge Young granted a continuance for a week of the hearing in the case of Bert H. Franklin, chief detective for the McNamara defense, arrested on the charge of bribing George Lockwood, a prospective juror. The motion for the continuance came from the defense and was not opposed by Assistant District Attorney Ford. The latter said he was perfectly willing to give all the time necessary. Ford and his chief, Captain Frederick, positively refused to discuss the case, and also sealed the mouths of their detectives.

These men believe the effect of the McNamaras pleading guilty means the defeat of Job Harriman, Socialist-Labor candidate for mayor, and his associates on the ticket which will go before the people at tomorrow's election. Harriman does not take this view. After winding up his campaign at an early hour today, he declared that he considered himself stronger than at any time since the campaign began, and expressed confidence of election.

The entire city of Los Angeles was saved from probable total destruction by dynamite through the arrest of the McNamaras.

This, according to a heretofore unpublished portion of Ortie McManigal's confession, was threatened by the McNamara brothers, after they had blown up the Los Angeles Times building and killed 21 employees. McManigal puts his threat in the following words:

"If another dose of dynamite doesn't unionize Los Angeles, we will blow up the water works and explode enough mines to burn the city."

"We can give them until 1915, and if they haven't mended their ways by then we will make that place an example the world will always remember."

The plan was discussed, McManigal said, in connection with his trip to Los Angeles last Christmas, when he dynamited the Llewellyn iron works, the crime to which John J. McNamara pleaded guilty of being the instigator.

"The United States government and California authorities are co-operating to uncover one of the most gigantic conspiracies ever conceived." This was the declaration today of Assistant District Attorney W. Joseph Ford, second in command to District Attorney John D. Frederick, and the man who was arrested in Indianapolis for alleged illegal extradition of John J. McNamara.

"It is only a question now of whether the federal government or the state authorities can reach certain persons and bring them to justice more effectually," continued Mr. Ford. "The federal officials have shown every disposition to assist us and we are helping them as much as possible."

Mr. Ford admitted that the prosecution had under surveillance in other parts of the country some prominent labor leaders alleged to have been involved in the Times explosion, but said arrests might first be made by the federal government.

SAMUEL GOMPERS MAKES STATEMENT

Labor Leader is Opposed to Capital Punishment—Favors Further Investigation.

New York, Dec. 4.—"I am not a hound! I am not a hound! I do not seek human life in punishment for any crime!"

This was the angry exclamation of Samuel Gompers on his return from Troy when shown a dispatch from Spokane saying the Central Labor Council of that city is planning a country-wide movement to obtain the maximum punishment for the Los Angeles dynamiters.

"I do not believe in capital punishment under any circumstances," he continued. "I do not believe that the state has a right to take human life. This is a very unwise movement. I am against it."

"What punishment do you think should be meted out to them?" the labor leader was asked.

"Suppose we let the judge decide that I am content to leave it with him," was the reply.

Mr. Gompers was also shown dispatches saying the Federal investigation at Indianapolis into dynamiting cases would proceed and asked if he thought there was any possibility of officials of the American Federation of Labor being involved.

"Let them go ahead. Let them go as high as they like," he exclaimed. "If there are any men above or below in this case the Federal investigation ought to disclose them. Let the Federal investigation go on. If there was anybody behind these men their identity ought to be known. Personally, I cannot conceive of where they get their money to perpetrate their outrages. I cannot dream of who was behind them."

"It has been said that the McNamaras pleaded guilty to protect other persons," Mr. Gompers was told.

"I do not know anything about that. If there is anybody that needs to be protected, I don't know of it."

Judge Bordwell, who will tomorrow render a decision upon which rests the fate of the McNamara brothers, did not appear in court today. It was reported that he was in seclusion, considering his course.

STRIKE OF MOUNTERS AT WEHRLE PLANT SETTLED

The news was given out officially Monday that the strike of the mounters at the Wehrle Stove Works has been satisfactorily settled to all parties concerned. The mounters, it will be remembered, had some differences with the company and made certain demands which the company refused to grant, when the men went out in September last, and have been out ever since. It was learned Monday afternoon that quite a number of the men have already been reinstated and that others will be put to work as fast as they are needed.

COLUMBUS BANK CLOSED TODAY BY U. S. EXAMINER

Columbus, Dec. 4.—The Union National bank today posted notice of suspension by request of the board of directors. The bank is now in the hands of the comptroller of the currency. The capital stock of the bank was $750,000 its surplus $100,000, and its deposits $2,000,000. W. S. Courtwright is president, E. K. Stewart, first vice president, and E. J. Vaughan, cashier. The action of the directors has been expected for several weeks and it is not believed that the closing will create any flurry in local financial circles. There are few small individual deposits in the bank, the most being large accounts of business houses. The county had several hundred thousand dollars on deposit. National Bank Examiner Goodhart of Washington has been in Columbus some time going over the books of the company. It is not known as yet what the losses may run to.

SPEAKER CLARK AND CONGRESSMEN STANLEY AND LITTLETON DIVIDE HONORS

Washington, Dec. 4.—With the opening of congress interest centers in Speaker Champ Clark, who will direct the destinies of the house of representatives, and Congressman Stanley of Kentucky and Littleton of New York. Stanley, who is chairman of the committee that has been investigating the steel trust, and Littleton, who is a member of the committee, have had serious differences of opinion. Littleton wants the investigation to be suspended because of the federal suit against the United States Steel corporation. He also wants the Anti-trust league and the Stanley committee investigated. Chairman Stanley says he has no power to make an inquiry of that sort and that congress will have to authorize such an investigation before it can be made. In this controversy it is likely that Speaker Clark will have the final say.

GALLERIES WERE CROWDED AT OPENING OF CONGRESS

Washington, Dec. 4.—A scathing denunciation of the American Anti-Trust League this afternoon by Representative Littleton was followed by the presentation of a resolution by Republican Leader Mann who appointed a committee of seven to investigate the attack of Mr. Littleton.

A sensational development of the day was the petition by Henry W. Martin of the league for Mr. Littleton's impeachment. The petition was in the form of a memorial and was presented to Speaker Clark at the moment when Mr. Littleton was on the floor of the house, madly denouncing Martin and his colleagues.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Both houses of the 62d congress convened today and practically every member of each house was in his seat. The galleries were crowded and hundreds were unable to gain admission. The expected speech of Representative Littleton of New York regarding the steel trust question was the sensational incident of the opening day of congress.

There was a flurry in the house just before it was called to order by the distribution of copies of a local newspaper which featured a mass meeting at which Representative Littleton and young were attacked by Henry R. Morgan, of the American Anti-Trust League. A copy was laid on the desk of each man of the house. Instantly Mr. Littleton indignantly rushed to the speaker's office and demanded to know by what right these copies had been allowed distribution in the house chamber. The copies were immediately ordered gathered up and removed from the chamber.

New Lexington, Dec. 4.—Perry county Saturday joined the ranks of the wets by a majority of 633, reversing a dry majority of 893 three years ago, when 56 saloons were voted out. Every municipality in the county save two went wet, these being Thornville and Crooksville, both of which are dry under the Beal law. The wets cast 3542 votes and the dries 3209. The only majorities secured by the dries were in the rural districts. The wettest spots were the villages in the southern end of the county, which are in the mining district.

New Lexington, the county seat, gave a wet majority of 73; Jackson City went wet by 35 New Straitsville by 269, Shawnee by 232, Cornville by 203, Congo by 155, Rendville by 78, and Somerset, which is dry by Beal law, went wet by 55. It is probable that a Beal law election will be held in Somerset, called by the wets in an effort to capture that village.

There was no disorder and no demonstration. The campaign passed off quietly, not much campaigning being done by either side. Wayne E. Wheeler and Frank Johnson, prosecuting attorney of Greene county, were the principal speakers for the dries, while Geo. T. Drake led the wets.

Dates for local option elections in Ohio during the remainder of 1911 have been set as follows: Ashland, Dec. 5; Warren, Dec. 9; Coshocton and Darke, Dec. 14; Muskingum and Belmont, Dec. 16; Tuscarawas, Dec. 21; Wayne, Dec. 22.

GOV. HARMON TO CONFER WITH PARTY LEADERS AT WASHINGTON SATURDAY

Columbus, Dec. 4.—Governor Harmon of Ohio expects to meet and confer with a number of national Democratic leaders in Washington next Saturday on the national situation and his chance for the nomination for the presidency. He will leave tonight for Atlanta, Ga., to speak Wednesday. It will be along national political issues that the governor will probably speak and the Ohio governor has not touched on them before. He goes to Baltimore Friday and then to Washington. While it was stated at the executive offices here today that he was going to the national capital to attend a dinner there Saturday, it was denied that arrangements have already been made for a meeting of the party leaders for a conference.

TOWBOAT BLOWN UP IN RIVER

Captain and Four Men Killed in Explosion of Boilers on Ohio

BIG BOAT SHATTERED

Into Mass of Splintered Wood and Sank Immediately—Bodies Hurled Through Space.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 4.—Captain Edward Swaney and four of his crew were hurled to their deaths and several others were rescued in a thrilling manner when the steamer Diamond was blown up in the Ohio River just below Davis Island Dam Sunday morning. Two of the men rescued are terribly injured and may die. The three boilers let go, but the cause of the explosion is not known.

The disaster occurred in mid-stream. The big towboat was shattered into a mass of splintered wood and twisted iron, and sank almost immediately. Only one body has been recovered. The dead: Captain Edward Swaney, 42 years old, master of the vessel of this city.

James Friel, 35 years old, deck hand, of Hazelwood; body recovered. Thomas Cunningham, 42 years old, fireman, of this city.

Thomas Mershon, 45 years old, engineer, home in Hazelwood. Ralph Hagan, 30 years old, a watchman, of this city.

The injured: Charles C. Hayes, 45, pilot, Bellevue three ribs broken, internal injuries; taken to Suburban General Hospital, Bellevue; may die.

Benjamin G. Williams, 35, mate, of Bangor, Pa.; skull fractured, other injuries; taken to Suburban General Hospital, Bellevue; may die.

Stella Marshall, 36, cook, Pittsburg, arm cut and sprained, suffering from shock; taken home.

Maggie Krealing, 18, chambermaid, Pittsburg, cuts and bruises. Maggie Gretsko, Pittsburg dishwasher, cut and bruised.

The Diamond was going up the Ohio River, bringing six barges and two flats and Captain Swaney was at the wheel in the pilot house.

When the boat reached a point about a hundred yards above the Avalon station the explosion occurred. All three of the boat's boilers seemed to let go at once and a sheet of flame shot up which was seen by many persons on shore.

The explosion rocked the houses in Avalon and soon a large crowd was on the bank of the river looking at the wreck of the steamboat, which quickly sank in 12 feet of water.

Second Mate James Wolfe of Pomeroy, O., was on the forward barge when the explosion occurred and he was startled when a body came hurtling through the air and alighted right at his feet. It was that of Friel, who had been employed on the boat only Sunday morning and was making his first trip.

Friel was standing on the forward deck of the boat when the explosion occurred and was hurled directly over the tow landing almost in the water, right at the feet of the second mate.

First Mate Benjamin Williams and Pilot Charles Hayes were at breakfast and were thrown clear out of the boat into the river.

Second Mate Wolfe saw them floundering in the water, injured too badly to swim, and at once launched a dory and rowed to where they were and pulled them on board.

They were taken ashore and sent to the Bellevue Hospital, where it was found that they were seriously hurt.

Stella Marshall, the boat's cook, and Maggie Gretsko, the chambermaid, were also in the dining room and were slightly injured. Both were treated at the Bellevue Hospital but were able to go to their homes later in the day, as were also several members of the crew who were cut and bruised.

The force of the explosion was so great that the entire forward part (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6.)

TONS OF SAND FELL IN PIT

Cincinnati, Dec. 4.—Without the slightest warning a bank of sand, weighing many tons, slipped down on several workmen in the pit of Contractor Seider, located half a mile back of Delphi, today. All managed to escape injury except Charles Wetrich, of Delphi, who was buried under the avalanche and died before he could be taken out.

SYDNEY B. CHAMBERS, SHOT
BY ITALIAN, DIED SATURDAY NIGHT AT CITY HOSPITAL

Sydney B. Chambers, aged 31 years, who was shot last Tuesday night about 7 o'clock at a Walnut street resort, died Saturday morning at 11:50 o'clock at the City Hospital. He was unconscious at the time of his death and for an hour or more had been delirious. His wife was at his bedside having been there most of the time since the shooting.

According to the statement of Coroner Whirch, who presided at the autopsy at Bowers & Balzer's morgue Sunday morning, Chambers' death was immediately caused by a gangrenous condition of the liver and abdominal cavity, which resulted directly from the gunshot wound. Chambers was shot Tuesday evening by Joseph Barco, aged 21 years, an Italian employed on a pipe line near Hebron. The shooting is said to have followed a quarrel in the resort, which resulted in Barco and his two companions, Carlo Centritto and Giovanni Mendicino, being ejected from the place. According to the statement of those at the place, Barco returned to the door and discharged his revolver several times into the place. Chambers fell with a bullet wound in his abdomen. He started for a doctor's office, supported by a friend, but had gone but a short distance before he became so exhausted from the loss of blood that it was necessary to call the patrol wagon.

Chambers was rushed to the City Hospital and immediately operated upon. It was found that the bullet had penetrated the liver and this organ was badly lacerated, causing a severe hemorrhage. Great clots of blood were removed from the abdominal cavity.

Tuesday morning after Chambers had recovered from the effects of the operation, the doctors and hospital attendants were hopeful for his recovery. It was apparent that the hemorrhage had been controlled and this was regarded as unusual, considering the seriousness of the wound.

As the man continued to hold his own, it was thought that he might recover, though the hospital attendants thought Tuesday evening that he would not live until the doctors reached his side.

The first turn for the worse occurred Thursday afternoon, when Chambers was seized with a fit of vomiting. Up to this time he was able to retain small quantities of water and slight nourishment.

After the appearance of nausea Chambers' condition gradually grew worse. However, until Saturday he was cheerful and was sure that he would soon be able to leave the hospital.

Saturday morning there was a marked change in his state of mind as well as his condition. He became very quiet and had little to say. The hospital attendants realized that his injury would terminate fatally, and were prepared for the end.

Mrs. Chambers his devoted wife remained faithfully at his bedside and assisted in attending to his wants and giving him encouragement.

About 10 o'clock Saturday night he became slightly delirious, and this condition grew worse until 11 o'clock, when he lapsed into unconsciousness, and death followed at 11:50 o'clock.

The body was removed to the morgue of Bowers & Balzer undertakers here Sunday morning. Coroner Whirch, assisted by Drs. Barnes, Shirer, Edward Nohls and W. L. Jackson, performed an autopsy.

The abdominal cavity was opened and the course of the bullet was followed from the place it entered the body until it passed out at the side. It was found that the kidney had been penetrated as well as the liver.

The greater part of the abdominal cavity was found in a gangrenous condition, and the liver was affected in the same way. It was the opinion of the doctors present at the post mortem that death was due to this condition. Following the autopsy, the body was prepared for burial.

Chambers was born in Licking County, July 21, 1880. He was a son of the late Mrs. S. B. Livingston by a former marriage. His regular occupation was that of a railroad brakeman on the B. & O. road, but he was laid off some time ago on account of the lack of work. He was employed at various business places in the city since that time. His wife survives.

Funeral services over the remains were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Central Church of Christ on North Fourth street, Rev. W. D. Ward, pastor of the church, officiating. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

As Chambers was sinking rapidly at the City Hospital, Captain Swank of the police department was in the place where he had a 30-hour search for Joseph Barco, the Italian who is charged with the shooting.

The captain received a tip that Barco went directly to Union following the shooting and that he spent the night with a brother who is living with a railroad gang in a camp car at that point. This car was watched until a late hour Saturday and then searched and several other places were entered with the belief that the Italian might be found. One house was searched Sunday morning at 3 o'clock.

All these efforts were in vain, and this trial was abandoned. The department has notified the immigration officials at the various ports, with a view of cutting off Barco's escape to his native land. No effort will be spared to secure his arrest, as he is now subject to trial on a charge of murder.

The State Journal gives O. S. U. but two players on its honorary roll which is unusual and is an indication that the State eleven this season is not very well thought of even in Columbus.

The selection of the Ohio newspapers for the "All Ohio" eleven are as follows:

COLLINS HAS AGENCY FOR NEW REMEDY

Lee's Rhubarb Laxative Ideal Family Medicine—Taste is Pleasant—Tona Vita Builds.

The hustle and worry and strain of modern life has produced a modern ailment. This modern ailment is nervous debility and during the past ten years it has swept over the country like wild-fire.

Today a large percentage of the population, particularly city dwellers, are afflicted with nervous debility or a "run down" condition as it is called.

The chief symptoms of this modern complaint are lack of vitality and energy, nervousness and stomach trouble, weak back, poor circulation, constipation and insomnia.

Old fashioned remedies failing, a modern tonic was introduced in Europe to overcome this trouble. The medicine was an instantaneous success and a similar tonic is now meeting with tremendous success in this country. The tonic is called Tona Vita and it builds up run-down people in a few weeks' time.

Are you a victim of this miserable, run-down, half-sick, tired-all-the-time condition? Are you nervous and despondent? Do you lack energy and ambition? If so, you have nervous debility and the wisest possible thing you can do is to let Tona Vita build you up and bring back your health and strength as it has done for thousands of others. You will be astonished how quickly this modern tonic will make you feel as though made over.

Lee's Rhubarb Laxative, the assistant remedy, is used in cases of chronic constipation. Rhubarb is the finest of all natural laxatives. Other drugs strain and weaken the intestines, rhubarb strengthens them. Lee's Rhubarb Laxative is an ideal family medicine and should be given to children in preference to all others. The taste is pleasant.

R. F. Collins has the agency for these two great medicines in Newark and will refund your money if you are not completely satisfied with them.

ENTERTAINMENT
PUBLIC LIBRARY

The great and growing demands upon our public library reveal the fact that it is inadequately supplied with reading matter.

To meet this need, the Library Association will, from time to time, present entertainments, asking the liberal support of the townspeople.

The first of this series will be given in the High School Auditorium on the evening of Dec. 18, tickets selling at the moderate price of 25 cents.

Miss Lucene Finch, who furnishes the entertainment, is a unique personality, who is well steeped in negro lore and folk songs, and it is said to be a rare treat to see and hear her. In order that the library may benefit by this one-night performance, many tickets must be sold.

This matter is in the hands of the club women of the city—a force to be reckoned with—so please have your quarter ready when approached. Remember the date, Dec. 18; remember the subject, Negro Folk Songs and Dialect Stories; remember the object, Newark's public library.

Help others, and others will help themselves.

If you haven't the time to exercise regularly, Dean's Exercises will prevent constipation. They induce a mild, easy, healthful action of the bowels without straining. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents.

The management confidently expects a large audience. The program follows:

What the Press Agent Says

The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary.

Miss Helen Lowell, who was accorded the highest praise by the newspaper critics of New York for her excellent and most laughable impersonation of Lizzie in "The Lottery Man" has a wide range of experience and has built up a strong reputation as a portrayal of spinsters of characters. From the time the audience first notices her appearance she arouses shouts of laughter, and this increases as they note the funny little quirks of manner—exaggerated slightly, but never caricatured, and always within the farcical nature of the play. Miss Lowell does not violate the intelligence, nor does she utter one word of vulgarity or of doubtful meaning at the expense of good taste. As "Aunt Mary," the New England spinster, she dominates and retains the humor of her eccentricities. At the Auditorium theatre on Tuesday, evening.

Fantasma.

A new, brighter and better edition of Hamilton's famous spectacle pantomime, "Fantasma," is announced as a coming attraction at the Auditorium theatre soon. This stupendous production of the Hamiltons has been brought up to date and is now said to be more interesting and charming than ever before. It is the acme of everything that is spectacularly gorgeous and brilliant. The engagement here will be a short one, hence it behooves those who want to see this interesting production to order the seats early.

The Orpheum.

A new bill opened at the Orpheum theatre this afternoon, which is said to be a musical treat. "Childhood Days" as presented by Gus Sin is a musical comedy that is sure to keep one laughing. J. Lee Hild is a well known comedian and with his eight merry youngsters will offer a line of new comedy. They will feature the Kennedy sisters, two little girls who are said to be excellent entertainers. Their songs and dances

TOWBOAT BLOWN UP

The steamboat was blown away from the wharf by the explosion. The bodies of the other four victims, all of whom are presumed to be dead, as they were directly in the line of the exploding boilers, have not yet been found.

Great pieces of the boiler were blown in all directions, some of them landing in Avalon. One piece knocked the chimney off a house in Avalon, about 600 yards from the scene of the explosion.

The safety valve of one of the boilers struck on the roof of the Avalon station, in the second floor of which Station Agent F. E. Dunbar and his family reside. They were at breakfast when the safety valve tore through the roof and landed right in the middle of the table. None of them was injured, but all were badly scared.

Captain Swaney had a premonition of the accident, for last Monday he told his wife that something was going to happen. "I will leave the Diamond in the spring if I am not killed before that time," he told her.

Williams, at the hospital, last night said he was almost sure that Captain Swaney and another man were torn to pieces, as they were very close to the boilers when the explosion occurred.

When the explosion occurred Friel was on the front of the boat, rolling rope around a capstan. Mrs. Marshall, the cook, was preparing a roast for dinner and the chambermaid was helping her. Others were scattered about the boat at various points busy at their work.

Then, without a warning the boat leaped with a convulsive shudder, and a huge cloud of steam, spread upward and outward in cumulous rolls, enveloped the boat and rose high into the sky. This the crew of the Alice, a government yacht, lying near Davis Island Dam, a quarter of a mile away, witnessed. A few moments later an explosion shook the quiet air of the valley.

Then the cloud of steam lifted slightly and the barges and splinters of the boat were seen tossed about like chips on the agitated water.

None of the survivors is able exactly to describe the sensations. To some the explosion came as a pistol shot from the shore followed by a temporary inability to breathe or to feel pain.

James Wolfe, the second mate, says he heard the boom of the explosion and looking around saw pieces of boilers and wreckage dropping in the water and flying through the air.

The Diamond, which was owned by the Diamond Coal and Coke Company, was built about eight years ago and remodeled only a few months ago.

STOLEN RING WAS SOLD TO NEWARKITE

Harry Frad, Victim of Misplaced Confidence, Parts With $150 Bank Roll.

Arthur McWilliams, state representative to the legislature from Tuscarawas county, with the assistance of the Newark police department, succeeded Saturday night in recovering a diamond ring valued at $200, which he claims was sold in this city in October by Herbert S. Snyder a trusted employee.

Developments in the case revealed that Snyder sold the ring to Harry Frad of Newark for $150. Frad in turn sold the stone to "Squid" Myers and the latter returned the ring at once to Mr. McWilliams when the real facts in the case were revealed by the story of the New Philadelphia man.

According to the story related to the police, Snyder was a trusted employee of Mr. McWilliams. He got possession of the ring, which was set with a valuable diamond, and soon after left Mr. McWilliams' employ and came to Newark.

He was in Newark for several weeks and while here became acquainted with Harry Frad. He offered the ring to Mr. Frad, who purchased it as an investment. Later he disposed of the jewelry as above stated. Last Saturday night, Mr. McWilliams, accompanied by the chief of police of New Philadelphia, came to Newark and sought the assistance of the local department in recovering the ring.

Mr. McWilliams stated that Snyder admitted having sold the ring to Mr. Frad. After an interview with Frad, the police learned that the stone was in the possession of Myers, and the latter without any words, turned the ring over to its owner.

Mr. Frad returned the purchase price to Mr. Myers and filed an affidavit against Snyder, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses.

The warrant was given to Patrolman Burke, who went to New Philadelphia, where Snyder is under arrest. He will endeavor to get a settlement out of Snyder, and if this fails the young man will be brought to Newark to answer to a criminal charge.

MT. VERNON MAN MISTOOK NEWARK FOR COLUMBUS

Chief of Police Charles Hindel and Patrolman Burke arrested Dick Savage Sunday afternoon on a charge of drunkenness. The man was hopelessly lost and claimed that he was looking for the home of his brother-in-law, "who resided on Cleveland avenue. It is evident that the man thought he was in Columbus. He claimed to hail from Mt. Vernon. He was ordered off the street several times but refused to obey and finally he was locked up for safe keeping. Savage drew a fine of $5 and costs in police court Monday morning.

MEN'S MEETING.

Considering the stormy weather the meeting held by the Christian Men's Union yesterday afternoon at the First Methodist church was a large and enthusiastic one and the address of the afternoon delivered by Mr. J. K. Shelleberger of Wooster, Ohio, was not only entertaining, but exceedingly helpful, inspiring and practical.

The devotional services were conducted by Mr. Ruppert of the Baptist church, and the singing of the old familiar hymns was very much enjoyed by the men.

The meeting next Sunday will be at the United Brethren church on East Main Street and the sermon and address will be by Rev. C. C. Roof of the Holy Trinity Lutheran church of the West Side.

FAITHFUL DOG FOLLOWED PATROL TO CITY PRISON

Mortimer Dwyer, a resident of Boylston street, was arrested Sunday afternoon by Patrolman Burke and Wagonman Sutton and charged at the city prison with being intoxicated. Complaint was filed against Dwyer by relatives who claimed that he threatened to commit suicide. When searched at the city prison the man had a small bottle of carbolic acid. This was taken from him and deposited in the big safe in the office of Tunkey Hager.

When arrested Dwyer's faithful dog, a black mongrel, refused to be separated from his master and jumped into the patrol wagon.

At the city prison he got lost from Dwyer and thought he was still in the wagon for he followed the vehicle back to police headquarters. He hunted high and low in the public safety building for Dwyer and was still about the police station long after darkness.

Dwyer was fined $5 and costs in police court Monday morning.

BOWLING GREEN MAY STILL LOSE SCHOOL

Conference in Toledo 'to Try and Straighten Out the Present Muddle.

Bowling Green is in a sad mix-up over its proposition to furnish a site for the state normal school and if there should be an extra session something might be done to extricate it from its predicament. Attorney General Hogan refuses to approve the site unless the citizens will put up the money to pay for the bonds, that were issued for it when they came due. He insists upon this because no city can lawfully give away property.

An attempt was made to pave the way for an adjustment of the trouble at a meeting of the trustees, the prosecuting attorney of Wood county, a common pleas judge of that county and Attorney General Hogan at Toledo Saturday. Some of the trustees are in favor of giving the institution to some other city. They are disgusted with Bowling Green's failure to make good on its offer.

Perhaps the reason Boston people eat baked beans is because they don't like them raw.

The McNamara confession will have one good effect that is of special importance. Had the dynamiters been convicted even on the strongest evidence, a feeling would have prevailed in many quarters that they were victims of persecution.

There is talk of a new Democratic daily newspaper in Columbus. It may make its appearance about the first of the year, will be called "The Times," and will be largely devoted to local news.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION DISCUSSION

James W. Faulkner's Sunday letter to the Enquirer from Columbus contains the following interesting gossip regarding the Constitutional Convention:

It now develops that there is a movement in the Constitutional Convention politicians, to call them such looking toward the limitation of the power of the chairman of that body. Under parliamentary law the presiding officer of a deliberative assembly, unless it is otherwise ordered, appoints the standing committees.

At present the field is against Rev. Herbert Bigelow of Cincinnati, but the opposition does not seem to have concentrated its influence upon any single candidate to defeat him, although many strong men have been named. The deduction is made that the new movement has its source in this opposition.

THE COMING COUNTY OPTION ELECTION

Before the week ends petitions will be circulated in Newark and throughout Licking county asking for a special election according to provisions of the Rose liquor law. This marks the beginning of a campaign which will result in declaring Licking county either "wet" or "dry."

Three years ago a similar campaign was conducted and the accompanying bitterness, heartaches, vituperation are still fresh in the minds of everybody. Families were divided, friends estranged and neighbors separated by the issue that was drawn and in the three years that have elapsed many of the old wounds have not been healed.

Right at the outset of the new campaign, the Advocate begs to call attention to the reference made at the recent meeting of the Board of Trade to the question.

Very properly the liquor issue has not been brought into the deliberations of the Board of Trade this year. Its introduction would have meant a division in the organization thereby making impossible of accomplishment many of the good things done by this association of 850 men of Newark.

What Newark most needs is for each man to grant his fellow citizens the right of holding an opinion different from his own. Because your friend and neighbor or business acquaintance differs from you upon this or any other question is no reason why you should resort to ill-tempered language.

Because one who holds the honest conviction that to vote "dry" is the only right course is no reason why he should be boycotted or condemned, and if a man who is equally opposed to the liquor traffic but prefers to vote "wet" in the belief that it is impossible to enforce a law where the majority of people oppose it there is no reason why he should be denounced. Let each man have his opinion without being censured. This is a free country and free thought and free speech are two of its underlying principles.

The arguments for and against the county option law are familiar to everybody. Any school boy can discuss the question. Then why print pages of advertising and hold public meetings to further embitter and divide our citizenship? Why not conduct a quiet campaign—a personal campaign—if you please, and urge every man to go to the polls upon the date to be selected and express his honest convictions?

Newark is headed in the right direction. More work of a character to bring Newark into the rank of a city has been accomplished during the past year than ever before, more has been done to unite the citizens in the common cause—Greater Newark has been the slogan—and more men today stand ready and anxious to do their part for the public good than ever before.

The people are interested in Newark's growth and advancement in every direction.

Let us not at this stage of the proceedings get into a bitter local conflict that will disturb our city's onward and upward march. If you like the county option law, vote for it. If you feel that Newark will be better under other conditions vote against it, but in either case vote your honest convictions and keep in mind the best interests of the city of Newark.

There is no cause or necessity for a bitter campaign. The more quietly the issue is decided the better will it be for Newark and all good citizens, whether they are for or against the Rose law, want to see Newark climb higher and prosper as never before.

other. However, Prof. Morseley found that the stump of the humerus remained, but no blood was noticed on the feathers. Just how long the crippled bird has gone with its one wing and managed to find insects for food, is not known, but it is thought it was some little time. In captivity the bird was active but lived only three days. The date on which the bird was found was rather late for its kind to inhabit this section of this country.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS.

In times now vanished, when my frau desired to fry some basic slag she put it in a pan, now she puts it in a paper bag. The hausfrau tells me, with a whoop, the new style cooking is no joke, and she proceeds to make some soup and boils it in a paper poke. Such changes all around I see; from ancient ways our country swerves; I blame old world's too swift for me, I can't keep cases on its curves. The world has got too swift for me, I

THE ART OF PRINTING. The art of printing was practiced among the Chinese as early as the sixth century. Their method is known as block printing; each page is engraved by itself on a block of wood and cannot be taken apart. Later printing from movable type greatly facilitated the art of printing and the honor of this invention is disputed by two cities, Haarlem and Mainz.

IMPORTANT WORK OF COMMITTEE

Congressman Ashbrook as Chairman Doing Effective Service Investigating Postoffice Department.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Important reforms in the Postoffice Department are likely to come about as the result of the inquiry into the administration of this branch of the Government now being conducted by the House Committee on Expenditures. This committee is headed by William A. Ashbrook of Ohio. It consists of four Democrats and three Republicans.

While the committee has made little noise, it is probable when its report is completed it will be found to be among the most valuable made in recent years by a Congressional body. The investigations are covering a wide range.

The committee has set experts exploring into the question of the cost of carrying second class mail matter. President Taft also has been looking into the subject. The question of railroad mail pay also is being considered. It is not long since Postmaster General Hitchcock gave it as his verdict that the roads were getting about $9,000,000 a year too much.

Thus far politics has not appeared in the committee. It has taken a number of votes, but never has been divided along partisan lines.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Open Windows. Who isn't familiar with the deadly parlor with its stale atmosphere, where for days at a stretch generations of malignant germs incubate undisturbed? A week often passes without the admission of sunlight. As well pass an afternoon in a smoke lined tunnel as remain in such a pesthole. Open the windows even in the rain. Far better to spoil a few trumpery lace curtains and spot the carpet than jeopardize your health. The lungs utilize all the oxygen they breathe and expel their impurities in your exhalations. Within an hour a man consumes all the oxygen in the average room. If the windows and transoms are down and the door is shut, thereafter he breathes foul poisons.

EVEN THE MOST STUBBORN COLD EASILY BROKEN

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world which will cure your cold or end gripe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

BASKETBALL AT Y. M. C. A WEDNESDAY EVE

The second basketball game of the present Y. M. C. A. season will be played on the gym floor Wednesday night of this week when the fast Columbus Cubs will oppose the local Y. M. C. A. The Cubs are said to be one of the fastest teams in the Capital City. The team will put up a better fight against the Newark boys than did the team which played here last week, and lovers of this game will be better pleased with the contest. The Newark team is composed of players of reputation and ability and expects to make a record this year which will arouse the envy of other basketball players in the state.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN FADED AND GRAY HAIR

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skilled chemists better than we could do it ourselves and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

JUDGE SEWARD GOES TO COSHOCTON SOON

Coshocton, Dec. 4.—Next Monday, December 11, Judge Seward of Newark will come here for two weeks more of criminal work, and with the disposition of the cases which are already assigned by Prosecutor Klein for that time, the criminal docket should be fairly well cleared. Most of the cases which are to be tried are for violation of the Rose law.

Monkeys and Gurn.

In tropical countries the natives have many unique ways of catching monkeys. One of them, as explained by a traveler, is this: The hunters walk about in short boots in sight of the monkeys. Then they take the boots off, place some gum in the bottoms and leave them on the ground, withdrawing themselves to a great distance. Presently the monkeys come down from the trees and try on the boots and when they are unable to climb, they are unable to climb. Thus the imitative little animals are captured.

EDGAR OWENS ON TRIAL TODAY IN LYNCHING CASE

The trial of the State of Ohio vs. Edgar Owens, charged with first degree murder in connection with the lynching of Carl Etherington, July 8, 1910, was begun in Common Pleas court Monday morning at 9 o'clock, Judge Devor of Ashland presiding.

Owens, who has been out on bond, was in court long before the opening session Monday morning. He is a son of W. H. Owens of 18 Riley street, this city, and has been a resident of Newark nearly all his life, having come to this city from Union Station, Licking county, when fifteen years of age.

But little interest was shown in the case at the opening on Monday morning, there being probably not more than thirty persons present in the court room besides members of the bar. At the opening of court Roderic Jones, attorney for the defense, asked that the motion of allowing the prisoner to withdraw his former plea of not guilty and enter a plea in bar, be considered by the court as the matter had been recently brought before Judge Wickham who set the matter to be heard before the presiding judge, Judge Devor on Monday, December 4. The matter was stated in full by Attorney Jones and Prosecutor Smythe answered for the state.

Judge Devor overruled the motion for a withdrawal of the plea of not guilty and to allow the prisoner to enter a plea in bar.

The attorneys in the case for the State are Prosecuting Attorney Phil B. Smythe, Special State Counsel W. H. Miller and Seth McMillen, while Attorneys Frank Bolton, Howard and Roderic Jones are conducting the defense.

At 9:45 a. m. all preliminary matters were disposed of and Bailiff Legge called the venire of jurymen, thirty-four of the thirty-nine called answering to their names. After some hustling two more reported and the selection of a jury began.

Harrison Wagner was excused because he was the only care of an invalid mother.

Wiley Alsford, Utica, was excused for cause.

Charles W. Hayman, railroad man, Newark, was passed for cause.

John W. Ha farmer, Union township; passed to the jury box.

Isaac Wilson, farmer, Newark township; passed for cause.

J. Park Lyon, Hebron, fence builder; passed for cause.

Alpha Stout, Washington township, farmer; passed for cause.

James F. Markham, Newark, shoe salesman; was excused when he said he did not believe in capital punishment.

O. U. Frye, Bennington township, farmer; passed for cause.

J. S. Price, Newark, clerk in B. and O. office; was challenged because of his views on the liquor question.

The motion to excuse was overruled by the court.

Rory Bruce, Burlington township, farmer; passed for cause.

When court convened Monday afternoon, Royal Bruce, the last venireman examined was excused, having been disqualified in answering questions.

The first man called at the afternoon session, John H. Bell, was challenged for cause and dismissed.

Dennis Dougherty of Bowling Green township, was excused for cause.

George Rogers, Newark city, excused for cause.

Ray McIntunt, Monroe township, passed.

Gregg, Madison township farmer, passed to the box.

W. H. Pound, Eden township blacksmith, challenged for cause.

Clinton Dustin, Bennington township farmer, passed to the box.

John S. Rugg, Newark rope manufacturer, passed to the box.

Francis M. Frost, Fallsbury township farmer, excused on account of serious illness of wife.

Thomas Norris, Madison township farmer, passed to the box.

At 2:30 the jury panel was filled and the court asked for the peremptory challenges. The attorneys for the state said they had no challenges to make at this time.

For the defense, Roderic Jones asked that J. S. Price be excused.

This was done by the court.

The next man on the venire, John Wickliffe, was excused by the court.

John Summerville, Perry township farmer, challenged by the defense, but challenge resisted by the state's attorney. The juror was passed to the box.

The jury had not been completed at 3 o'clock.

SPECIAL WEDNESDAY MORNING TWO HUNDRED "WEAR-EVER"

One Quart Sauce Pan ..... 21c ELLIOTT HDWE. CO.

This is a man's genuine Goodyear welt shoe. It has two oak tanned outsoles, a solid grain-leather insole and a one-piece sole leather counter. There is no sham or makeshift in any part of it. The Wear-U-Well system of distribution, direct from factory to wearer, makes the price possible.

President Taft, Dr. Wiley—in fact all thinking men admit that there will be no material relief in this country until producer and consumer are brought nearer together.

All legislation to reduce the high cost of living is useless so long as an antiquated system of distribution permits from two to four profits between the man who raises or makes, and the man who eats and wears.

The Wear-U-Well branch in your city stands for the new idea in distribution.

It is a real and honest "Factory to you" system.

Wear-U-Well branches sell only shoes made by Wear-U-Well factories and they absolutely cut out all the middlemen's profits.

That is the easily understood reason that the $3.00 value shown above can be bought at the Wear-U-Well for $1.98.

Solid leather Goodyear Welt Shoes at the Wear-U-Well for

LOUGE OF SORROW AT AUDITORIUM WELL ATTENDED

Beautiful and impressive were the annual services of Newark Lodge, No. 391, B. P. O. Elks held in the Auditorium Sunday afternoon, before an audience that was large in numbers considering the inclemency of the weather.

For some time the committees have been busy arranging their plans for the Lodge of Sorrow, and the appreciation shown more than repaid for the trouble and time spent in preparations. The stage, from which the service was held, was prettily decorated in honor of the occasion. The members of the local lodge and other Elks in the city met in the club room and marched to the Auditorium in a body, each Elks wearing a white carnation in the coat lapel.

On the stage were seated the officers of the lodge, the speakers of the day and the committees and trustees of the order.

The program as printed in Saturday's Advocate was carried out and proved to be decidedly interesting. The music for the services was rendered by the Elks' Quartette, with Miss Mary Hentze, accompanist.

The program began with the opening service with E. W. Murphy as exalted ruler. This was followed by a number by the Elks' Quartette, "Lead Kindly Light," after which the opening ode was sung by the members, followed by the invocation by the Rev. J. Morriston Thomas. The quartette then sang "Sleep Thy Last Sleep," which was followed by Bro. A. C. Davis, who delivered the eulogy, "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," was rendered by the quartette, after which Hon. Hugo N. Schlessinger, last Exalted Ruler of Ohio, delivered the memorial address.

The list of honored dead is as follows: D. A. Allen, Charles W. Green, Edward O. Miller, Charles C. Rankin, Charles A. Foster, T. O. Donovan, Lee H. Wyeth, A. W. Ogilvie, Jno. Schlegel, William Bell, Jr., W. G. Tafel, William E. Finck, F. L. Shaffer, A. W. Wilcox, J. F. Mannion, Fred M. O'Hara, Frank T. Maurath, Charles M. Bliss, Wm. P. Young, Judge E. M. P. Bristor and Charles E. Murray.

The eulogy, which was delivered by Brother Archie Davis, of this city was one of the most touching of any ever delivered in the city. He dwelt at considerable length on the good qualities of the deceased brothers. He also told how the memory of the dead was perpetuated by "The Lodge of Sorrow" held on the first Sunday in December in each year, a custom that was universal in every state in the union or possession of this great Republic.

The memorial address delivered by the Hon. Hugo N. Schlessinger of Columbus, ex-state president of the Ohio Elks, was a masterly effort. He talked in a vein of sunshine rather than sorrow and looked upon the bright side of things in this life. He spoke of the purposes of the Elks, how they had grown in numbers and power and also spoke of the hopes and desires of accomplishing as much in the future as they have in the past.

Mr. Schlessinger is a most brilliant and accomplished orator and his remarks were listened to until the end with the closest attention.

After the quartette had rendered the last number, "Abide with Me," the services closed with the benediction by the Rev. J. Morriston Thomas.

The Christmas Gifts in the Shops.

It would seem as if by simply walking through the shops, one could find suggestions sufficient for every one on the gift list. And yet often we come back from our quest, without a single gift definitely decided upon. Nothing has seemed to fit. It either doesn't suit the person, or else it is beyond the limits of our purse. And so we gaze with despair at our lengthening list and the shortening number of shopping days.

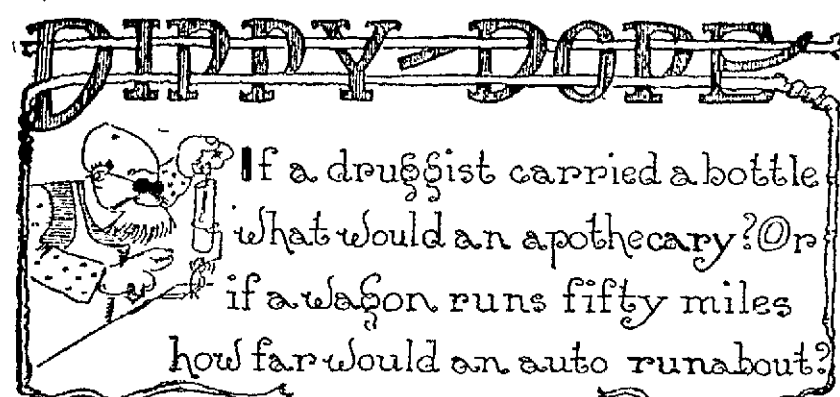

Have you thought of a reading glass for grandfather or grandmother? It is a great help for eyes that are growing dim, for reading newspapers and other literature where the print is smaller or less clear than in books and magazines.

Wouldn't the friend who has a pet dog or cat which she permits in her room like one of the beautiful baskets for pet animals that are to be found in the shops? Some of these are quite handsome affairs lined with brocade and trimmed with braid or ribbon.

The man who is fastidious about his little belongings might delight in one of the very thin, gold-plated pen-knives for his vest pocket. They are handsome and withal useful.

If the person

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Fountain Of Youth

"No One Ever Grows Old In Bimini"

THE first white men to come to America after Columbus had discovered this country were the Spaniards," said daddy one evening. Jack had asked him for a "really truly" true story, and he had decided to tell them a historical tale.

He went on: "Among the first leaders of the Spaniards was a brave soldier named Ponce de Leon. He was not a good man, for he was cruel toward the Indians. But he was a great fighter, and he helped greatly in the Spanish settlement of parts of America, especially the islands which are called the West Indies."

"Ponce de Leon was a rich man and a great man, but he was not happy. He was only fifty years old, which is not considered old nowadays, but in those days—about 400 years ago—fifty was thought to be quite old. Besides, he was tired out from all the fighting he had done with the Indians. One day he overheard an old Indian say:

"No one ever grows old in Bimini."

"That interested Ponce de Leon very much. 'Why does no one ever grow old in Bimini?' he asked. 'And where is Bimini?'"

"The old Indian answered that Bimini was an island to the northwest of Porto Rico, where Ponce de Leon then lived. In it, said the Indian, there was a wonderful fountain of clear, sparkling water. Whoever drank of the waters of this fountain and bathed in it, it was said, would never grow old. No matter how old he was when he reached the fountain, if only he drank some of the water and bathed in it he would become young and strong again."

"Immediately Ponce de Leon made up his mind to search for the fountain of youth, as it was called. For many days and nights the Spanish general and his men sailed. They passed by many islands and stopped at some of them. Wherever they landed they asked the Indians whether it was Bimini, but the answer was always no; that Bimini lay still farther on."

"After a long time Ponce de Leon and his followers passed all the islands without having reached Bimini. Then they gave up, discouraged, and returned to Porto Rico. But nine years later he and some of his men set sail again to look for Bimini. This time they reached Florida, a beautiful land covered with flowers. There they hoped to find the fountain of youth, but they were disappointed again. And not only that, but the Indians, who did not like to have the Spanish come to their country, fought against them. In one of the fights Ponce de Leon received a wound from an arrow from which he died after being taken back to Cuba."

WELL, WHY NOT?

A native of Germany was visiting an American friend in New York, and the latter betought himself to take his guest on a visit to Niagara Falls.

The American, accustomed to bursts of wonderment and enthusiasm, was not a little astonished to see his Teutonic friend stand and gaze stolidly minute after minute upon that roaring cataract, without evincing the faintest sign of emotion.

Finally, unable any longer to conceal his chagrin and disappointment, the American turned to his companion and asked: "Don't you think that's a wonderful sight?"

"Vot?" asked the Dutchman.

"Why, that gigantic body of water pouring over that lofty precipice."

The German stood for a few seconds longer, until he got that idea digested, then looked up blankly and asked: "Vell, vot's to hinder it?"—Everybody's Magazine.

NEWARK WAS VISITED BY SNOWSTORM

The people in this vicinity woke up Sunday morning to find that another cold wave had visited them and that it was accompanied with a good fall of snow, averaging about four inches in depth. This was the second really cold wave of the winter, and the people felt it, as it was fully as uncomfortable as its predecessor a short time ago. All day Sunday there were flurries of snow, which were whisked about by brisk winds making it very uncomfortable for pedestrians. The cold continued throughout Sunday night and Monday morning. At five o'clock Monday morning the temperature reached 8 degrees above zero, which was one of the coldest mornings so far of the winter. The cold snap lingered until nearly noon Monday when it began to moderate so as to be noticeable, and the outlook is good for warmer weather.

WILL PRODUCE "THE MESSIAH" AT GRANVILLE

First Concert of Xmas Musical Festival Tomorrow Evening—News of the College Town.

Granville, Dec. 4.—The first concert of the Christmas Musical Festival is to be held in the Baptist church, Granville Tuesday evening, December 5, when the great oratorio, "The Messiah," will be produced. No oratorio, perhaps no musical work of any kind is more universally known and loved than this. The soloists in this work will be: Mrs. Lereño Rogers-Wells, soprano; Miss Ruth J. Bailey, contralto; Mr. Charles R. Hargreaves, tenor; and Mr. John M. Priske, bass. The chorus will be accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Benedict, organist, and the Denison orchestra.

The second concert will be given at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, when the visiting singers will present a selection of solo numbers. In addition, as a social feature, the society has secured the services of Mrs. Edith Haines-Kuester, pianist-composer, who will accompany the singers and contribute a group of piano solos. Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Kuester are well known in joint recitals all over the country and on this program they will present one group of Mrs. Kuester's compositions. Another attraction will be the Shepherd's Glee club, which will sing Debussy's Lyric Poem, "The Blessed Damozel."

Mrs. Lorene Rogers-Wells is a concert soprano of unusual attainments. She is soloist at the Broadway Tabernacle, New York, and is well known throughout the country as an oratorio and concert singer.

Miss Ruth Jeanette Bailey, who will fill the contralto role in "The Messiah, came to the Denison Conservatory this year from the New England Conservatory, and is a young singer of great promise as well as an accomplished violinist.

Charles Hargreaves is a great artist, and will be kindly remembered in Granville because of his excellent work in "The Messiah" performances two years ago. He has been leading tenor for a number of the leading concert companies and operas of the country. His musical intelligence and careful finish mark him as an artist of the first water.

John Moyses Priske, the new head of the Denison Conservatory's Voice Department is an artist of splendid preparation and experience. Born in England, he studied there with Stanley, Randegger and Visetti, and in Italy with Vaucucci, gaining wide familiarity with oratorio and opera. He has also been associated with William L. Whitman in Boston as teacher in his International Vocal studies.

Mrs. Edith Haines-Kuester has gained distinction in two of the most exacting fields of musical endeavor. Although one of the youngest she is recognized among the representative women composers. As a pianist Mrs. Kuester has scored a convincing success. She is technically proficient and well equipped mentally to interpret the masterpieces of every school. Her part in the Festival is a novel one, and is sure to be appreciated.

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Eddy and daughter, Mary Elizabeth of Urbana, and Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Harford of Granville, spent the latter part of last week in Delaware, the guests of Mr. W. C. Divan and family. Rev. Mr. Eddy is moving to Indianapolis.

Dr. F. W. Shephardson of Chicago was re-elected secretary of the Interfraternity conference, held in New York Friday. He spent a few hours in Granville Sunday visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Perry of Granville have been visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. B. McCammon, on Montrose avenue, Delaware. They, in company with Mrs. C. E. Perry and children were present at a birthday dinner given for Rev. Mr. McCammon.

Miss Vivian Perry and her classmate, Miss Irene Hamilton of Chicago, who are students at Denison, have been spending their Thanksgiving vacation at the home of Miss Perry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. C. Perry in Chillicothe.

The schools of Granville are all progressing extra well since they were reopened following the scarlet fever scare. The pupils all like their teachers and are attending regularly and devoting their entire time to their studies. The teachers are doing their very best to make the schools rank with the best in the state. The intense interest manifested by the school authorities is an indication of the greatest year in our history.

NOT TO CONVERT THE HEATHEN

Pastor Russell's Visit to Heathen Lands Does Not Imply His Hope For the Conversion of the Heathen as the Means For Inaugurating Messiah's Kingdom, but the Reverse—The Kingdom Must Be Established Before Every Knee Will Bow—Heathens Have More Than Doubled in Last Century.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Brooklyn, Dec. 3d.—The public was not made aware of Pastor Russell's presence in our city today. No advertisements were given forth because the Academy of Music was not obtainable, and the Tabernacle would not accommodate the crowds.

As it was, however, the Tabernacle was crowded. His text was, "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." (Jeremiah viii. 20.)

The Pastor seemed specially to enjoy the semi-privacy of this meeting with the Tabernacle congregation. As is generally known he is about to start on a tour of the world in company with a Committee of six gentlemen of affairs of which he is the chosen Chairman. The Committee was appointed some months ago by the International Bible Students Association to visit heathen lands, to investigate conditions there and to report to the Association and to the public their findings along the following lines:—

The Committee's Instructions.

(1) Are the Foreign Missions being conducted along Christian business lines?

(2) To what extent are the methods used successful in reaching the heathen peoples and in bringing them to Christianity?

(3) What are the teachings, what the inducements, to accept Christianity and how enduring are the results?

(4) What is the attitude of Heathendom to the missionaries and toward Christianity and what are the prospects for Foreign Missions becoming self-sustaining?

(5) What, if any, changes could be made in teaching or in financial administration to make the foreign missionary work more successful in the future?

(6) What hope is there for the conversion of the world in this generation as proposed by the Laymen's Missionary Movement with its thirty-million-dollar endowment?

(7) To what extent do the monies donated benefit the heathen and could any improvement along this line be suggested?

The personnel of this Committee is interesting. They are all deeply interested in Christian work, both at home and abroad. They are Christian men of the highest type, and have long been contributors to the spread of the Gospel. They are as follows: Pastor Russell, President; Prof. F. E. Robinson, Secretary; Gen. W. P. Hall, U. S. A.; Mr. J. T. D. Pyles, Washington, D. C.; Merchant; Mr. E. W. V. Kuehn, Merchant, Toledo, Ohio; Dr. L. B. Jones, Chicago, Illinois; and Mr. R. W. Maxwell, Merchant, Mansfield, Ohio.

The report of this committee will be awaited with great interest by many.

Pastor Russell will visit classes of Bible Students en route and will address the public next Sunday in Los Angeles, California. Arrangements are perfected whereby we will be in touch with him throughout his journey. His addresses will be reported from Japan, China, Manila, Travancore, Madras, Calcutta, Cairo and Corinth.

Discussing his text the Pastor declared that as there was a harvest time, a reaping time, in the end of the Jewish Age, so also there is to be a harvesting in the end of this Gospel Age. The frutrage of this Age will be gathered into the heavenly "garner," by the glorious change of the First Resurrection. "The Lord's words were, 'The harvest is the end of the Age.' By mistranslation His words were rendered, 'The harvest is the end of the world,' and thus many have been misled into a fear that the second coming of Jesus will mean the end of all things, for all except the saintly few.

Rather we should understand that as the Jewish Age ended with a harvest, and its ripe frutrage was gathered into the "garner," so the garnering of the Church, in the close of this Age, will mean the inauguration of the New Dispensation of Messiah's Kingdom—a New Age of blessing to the world in general—to all the families of the earth. The glorified Church, in association with her Lord and Redeemer, will reign for a thousand years, as kings and priests unto God and unto Christ, for the world's uplifting out of sin and death conditions.

Only the Church Harvested.

The Pastor reminded his hearers that he believes the Bible to teach that we are now in the harvest time of this Age. Consequently none should misunderstand the visit to heathen lands to imply any expectation on his part that the heathens must be converted before this Age will end. That such would be an impossibility is shown by the government statistics to the effect that the numbers of heathen have doubled during the past century.

What he does expect is, that as there are a few of God's "very elect" in all denominations of Christendom, now to be garnered, so also there are a few saintly ones amongst the heathen who have accepted Christ—including some of the missionaries. The "harvest" must cover as wide an area as did the sowing of the Gospel seed. To some extent the message of the Kingdom has been preached amongst all nations. "The Bible is the special proclamation of Messiah's Kingdom as the hope of the world, and contains the 'call' of the Church to joint-heirship with her Lord in that Kingdom, which will bless the world.

The essence of this Kingdom message, however, has been somewhat confused by reason of the many false notions set forth in our numerous false creeds of the past. In his discourses in heathen lands the Pastor intends to lay stress upon the Kingdom feature of the Gospel message. While it will be his privilege to proclaim the Kingdom message, he recognizes that only those who have the "ear to hear" will be able to appreciate and receive it. His message is one of the Bible, to which all Christians may rally, if they are rid of denominational ties: "The Church of the First-born, whose names are written in heaven," and whose Harvest time has come, are the Lord's, wholly irrespective of the denominations with which they are affiliated.

"Harvest Past, Summer Ended."

The text points out a lesson. Not all who have professed to be followers of Christ will be amongst the blessed ones of the "harvest," who are to be transported by the First Resurrection to glory, honor and immortality as their reward. The words of Jesus here cited in corroboration of this are: "Many shall say unto Me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not taught many, and in Thy name cast out devils, and done many wonderful works?" Many who thus hope will be disappointed—will be shut out of the Kingdom class.

Another of the Redeemer's parables, the Pastor said, pictures the consecrated saints of God in this "harvest" time as "virgins." But some were wise and some foolish. The masses of mankind, yea, the masses of Christendom, are omitted from this parabolic picture. Only the "virgin" class is dealt with at all, and it is divided into two parts, and only the wise, the faithful, "more than conquerors," will have the honor of entering into the wedding with the Bridegroom and becoming "the Bride, the Lamb's Wife." Then the door will be shut. No more will ever enter that door. No more will ever be added to the Bride company—the number of the "elect" will have been completed.

The parable shows that, later on, the "foolish virgins" pass through great tribulation and obtain the oil and the light which they should have had before. But it will then be too late to become of the Bride. They will knock, saying, "Lord, Lord, open unto us," but the Bridegroom will declare, "I do not recognize you," as members of My Bride. However, the Scriptures show us that these "foolish virgins," passing through a great time of tribulation, will be called to "the marriage supper of the Lamb" and be present before the great King as the virgins, the Bride's companions, and subordinate helpers.—Psalm vi, 13-15.

One lesson, said the Pastor, is that it is not sufficient that we say, Lord, Lord—that we publicly proclaim ourselves Christians—nor is it sufficient that we be engaged in good works, casting out demons and healing the sick and teaching the people. These things in their way are good, but God has His own test as respects those who shall be accepted as members of "the Bride, the Lamb's Wife." Obedience to the Word and Spirit of the Lord, loyalty to the Master and to all His followers, faithfulness to His teachings, through evil report and through good report, will be required.

The greatest work of which any of Christ's followers are capable is the conquering of self—the development of the fruits and graces of the Holy Spirit. Our privilege of being co-laborers with the Master in the proclamation of His Message is not granted because He needs us, but because we need the opportunities thus afforded for the development of His character-likeliness in our hearts.

"I Never Knew You"

Our Lord implies a great number of nominal followers devoid of His Spirit, who in the end of this Age would not be bringing forth the frutrage that He desires, who would not be members of His called and chosen and faithful class, though outwardly, nominally, all of these. He points down to our day, saying, "in that day"—in the closing of this Age, in the testing time, in the time when He shall come to make up His jewels and to glorify them as His Bride, His members, His associates in the Kingdom. Many at that time—in our day—will profess that they know the Lord, that they are prophets or teachers, that they are casting out devils, opposing sin and multitudinous forms of evil, and that they are carrying on mighty works, benevolent institutions, colleges, seminaries, etc., in His name. The Revised Version gives, "by Thy name," indicating that the name of Christ is used rather as a charm, to conjure by.

But the testing time is near. The Lord will require respecting the fruit of these. He will not be deceived; yea, He will expose the bad fruit, that all may see that His judgment is just. It will be manifest that neglect of His Word has led to degeneracy, decay—that the suckers of worldly ambition, pride, wealth, show, etc., have been cultivated, notwithstanding all of the trying experiences which might have served to prune these. It will be shown that many of the prophets of Babylon are false prophets, whose teachings have misguided the people and, instead of blessing, have done injury; instead of enlightening, have blinded it will be manifested that many of them are ravening wolves in sheep's clothing, hungry with ambition for fame and prominence and honor of men, and willing to barter the interests of the "flock" for their personal aggrandizement.

It will be shown that much of this conjuring in the name of Jesus has been merely a cloak, under which, deceiving and being deceived, sectarian frutrage, and not the love, joy, peace and holy Spirit, have been cultivated. "The day will declare it," will show it, will manifest it. The whole world shall be witness eventually that God's name was dishonored, and His Word misrepresented, because false teachers were looking every one to gain from his own quarter—his own denomination.—Isaiah lvi, 11.

The Lord never knew the sects—He never recognized them. He never authorized them; they are of men, and for men, not of the Lord nor for the Lord's glory. Claiming that all there is of Christianity is due to themselves, they are proud and boastful and realize not that the Lord's true cause would have flourished far better without them, in the simplicity of the early Church—one in redemption through the precious blood and in consecration to the Redeemer. The gathering out of the Bride class and the leaving of the remainder will be saying in effect, "I never knew you, never recognized you, never authorized you," and these unauthorized sects will go down in the great "time of trouble."

We are glad, however, that the thousands and millions who have been deceived by these false systems will have a glorious opportunity during the incoming Age to come to a knowledge of the Truth and a right understanding of the character of God as revealed in the fulfillment of His gracious plan. Thus many who miss the great "prize" may still have a glorious opportunity for the lesser prize of God in restitution, etc.

"Depart From Me, Ye That Work Iniquity."

We believe that there are active workers in the sectarian systems called "Babylon" who will yet be reached by the knowledge of the Truth and delivered. Our Lord intimates this, saying, "Come out of her, My people." Some of His people evidently are in Babylon, and it is our present mission in the name of the Lord to call these out—through the presentation of "Present Truth," which will show to all who are truly the Lord's where they stand, and their duty. Others of the active workers in the iniquitous systems, which are counterfeiters of the true, misrepresenters of God's Message and binders and enslavers of the Lord's people, because not at heart loyal to Him, will not come out of Babylon, and therefore will share in the condemnation coming upon her. They will go into the great time of trouble, and for a season at least be cut off from all fellowship with the Lord. These workers of iniquity will have their hands full of the trouble which they have helped to bring upon the world of mankind by their misrepresentations of the Divine character and Plan. It will be a terrible chastisement, and our hope for them is that "when the judgments of the Lord are abroad in the earth, all the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness."—Isaiah xvi, 9.

On the Rock or on the Sand?

The picture or parable of one house built upon the rock and the other house built upon the sand refers not to the Church and the world, but to two parties in the Church. None are in the parable except "those who hear these sayings of Mine." The world hears not our Lord's message at all. As the Apostle declares, the world is both deaf and blind to spiritual things. Those who hearken to and appreciate the Lord's sayings represent at least a nominal Church, and amongst those of the nominal Church are some who are obedient to the Lord's Word, while others are disobedient. The obedient are built upon the rock, the disobedient upon the sand.

Those who build upon the rock our Lord explains to be such as not only hear His message, but are obedient thereto to the extent of their ability. Let us remember the words to which He refers—they are the message of the Sermon on the Mount, which show the things which are blessed of God in contradistinction to the things which would not have His approval.

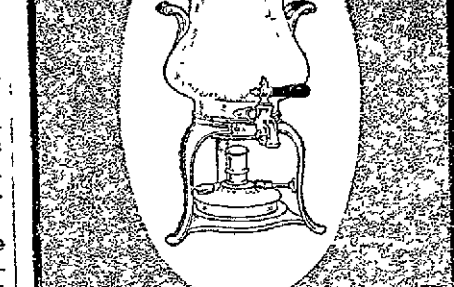

Those who hear the Master's words and say, "Yea, Lord," but who do not put His teachings into practice, are not built properly upon the rock of Truth, upon Christ. They are building their hope, their faith, their trust, upon a foundation which will not stand. When the time of trouble comes upon such their hopes will be undermined, their faith will collapse.

We thank God that although many of the nominal professors of Christianity and teachers and philanthropists will not be accepted amongst the elect Bride class, nevertheless they are far too good, too noble to merit eternal torture. Nay, the Lord will not even consign them to the Second Death, to annihilation. Rather, He will provide for them, under Messiah's Kingdom, a gracious opportunity of attaining and demonstrating a still higher type of love and loyalty than they have yet experienced or manifested. In proportion as any shall even then faithfully use the great privilege accorded him, his ultimate perfection and salvation will be assured.

AUTO VICTIM IS BURIED IN CEDAR HILL

Miss Ada Williams, who met death Friday night when an automobile in which she was riding, with three others, rolled into the canal near the Jackson hotel, was buried Monday afternoon in the Cedar Hill cemetery. Short funeral services were held at 2 o'clock at the chapel of Criss Bros. & Jones, undertakers. Rev. P. E. Vernon of the First Presbyterian church conducted the services.

Through the efforts of the young woman's friends here, it was learned that her parents are both dead and that the nearest relative is an uncle residing in Georgia. He was notified of her death and asked if he wanted the body shipped to his home for burial.

A message was received from him stating that he was satisfied to have the Newark friends see that she was decently buried, that he was financially unable to do otherwise.

The expenses attending her funeral and burial were borne by May Miller, with whom the young woman boarded on Harrison street while in Newark.

WOMEN ARRESTED FOR VIOLATION OF QUARANTINE LAW

On an affidavit filed by Health Officer W. H. Knauss, two women residing on Wing street were served with a warrant Monday morning charged with violating the quarantine ordered by the Department of Health. It was alleged in the affidavit that the woman and her daughter left the house Saturday evening and boarded a crowded car contrary to the provisions of the quarantine. The health officer states that here is a case of scarlet rash in the family and that there is danger of infection through the violation of the department's orders. As the house is still under quarantine, the defendants were not brought before Mayor Ankele but were notified to appear for arraignment Monday, December 11.

Health Officer Knauss states that there is much contagious disease in East Newark and that the department is experiencing much difficulty in enforcing the quarantine regulations. He said that it was necessary to take the action he did to protect other residents and citizens from the infected families.
